THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI O. RAJAGOPAL): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. Indian Railways, in association with the International Union of Railways (UIC) organised a User-Producer interaction programme in New Delhi on the subject "Improved Maintenance Practices and Reducing Life Cycle Cost—A common challenge for Railway Operators and Manufacturers. The programme was organised over 3 days from January 30 to February 1, 2002. It was attended by 154 Indian and Foreign delegates representing various Railways and Industries. These included 39 foreign delegates representing France, U.K., Japan, Holland, Germany, Austria, Australia, Iran, Italy, Switzerland, South Africa and Belgium.

The Seminar was an effort to establish an interface between the Railway operators and industries in the rail sector, with a view to devising strategies for reducing maintenance costs of railway infrastructure, taking advantage of new technological developments. The conference was very successful in focussing attention on the issues involved.
